Lectio Divina

While reading sacred scripture, read the words with a love and sense of discovery until something seems to strike home. Sit with the passage as one would with a good friend- not just thinking or analyzing, but instead remaining in a quiet, listening spirit, so the word can nurture and challenge you.

Call to Prayer

"Let us take a moment in the midst of all our activity to prepare ourselves for prayer."

The Word of God

Choose one of next Sunday's readings.
One person reads the scripture aloud as others are attentive to a word, phrase, or theme that is meaningful to them.
Allow for a minute of silent reflection.
Have another person read the same scripture a second time.

Faith Sharing

Begin with an open ended question such as "What strikes you from this reading?" and/or you can use the "Reflection Question" found on our website or bulletin.
Allow time for reflection & sharing.

Closing Prayer

At the end of the faith sharing, invite participants to pray aloud for any particular petitions or praises they may have. Feel free to close with:
The Lord's Prayer
Spontaneous prayers or A faith-based song

Reflection Question for October 19th

Am I currently giving to God the things that belong to God? If not, what do I need to change in my life that I might give to God the things which belong to God?

Dear Parishioners,

On Friday evening we hosted an Appreciation Dinner for our Altar Guild. Members of the Altar Guild are a huge blessing for our parish because of the important work they do "behind the scenes." Members of the Guild are parishioners who volunteer their time to launder the Sacred Mass linens and care for the clergy albs and servers' robes –all done at home! Other members of the guild clean the church and chapels in a regular rotation.

If you've ever wondered why our church and our linens always looks so clean, it is in large part because of the devoted service and loving care these wonderful parishioners give to the Lord's House and to the sacred linens. In the name of all of us, I offer them my sincerest thanks for the ongoing time and effort they so generously give to serving Our Lord in this way.

In a special way I express deep gratitude to Betsey Swancar who coordinates and gives such outstanding leadership to the work of the Altar Guild; in addition Betsey has made by hand most of the liturgical vestments our priests and deacons wear as well as the beautiful seasonal Altar and pulpit hangings. I also express our heartfelt gratitude to Rose Marie Condon who for many years now has been arranging and caring for all the flowers that bring such beauty to our church and chapel each week; Rose Marie also coordinates all the flowers for the high holydays such as Christmas, Easter and other feast days. Finally I express our gratitude to Phyllis Hipp who coordinates the cleaning of our 1889 Chapel and does it with such loving dedication and devotion.

We are so fortunate to have the best Altar Guild I have ever had the pleasure of working with—and I express once again to each of them our deepest thanks and appreciation. Their efforts are truly a most precious gift to our parish. May God bless each of you and your families.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

If Columbus had an advisory committee, he would probably still be at the dock.

The Altar and Sanctuary flowers in the Church are given this weekend in loving memory of Ann Whyte Smith, M.D. Our sincere gratitude is extended to Peg Whyte for providing this weekend's flowers.

ONE THE IMPORTANCE AND PRIORITY OF DEFENDING INNOCENT HUMAN LIFE

The first right of the human person is his life. He has other goods and some are more precious, but this one is fundamental – the condition of all the others. Hence, it must be protected above all others. It does not belong to society, nor does it belong to public authority in any form to recognize this right for some and not for others; all discrimination is evil, whether it be founded on race, sex, color or religion. It is not recognition by another that constitutes this right. This right is antecedent to its recognition; it demands recognition and it is strictly unjust to refuse it.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

First Reconciliation/First Communion Preparation for all 2nd

Graders: Few experiences in the religious education of children are as meaningful & rewarding as helping them to prepare to celebrate the sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. The Canon Law of the Church and the regulations of the Archdiocese of Baltimore state that as children reach the age of discretion (about 7 for most children), they are to be invited to prepare for these two sacraments. Children are also to be enrolled in a formal religious education program in a parish or catholic school at least one year before beginning preparation for these sacraments. Informational letters will be mailed home in early September to all 2nd grade students who are currently registered in our religious education program, enrolled in St. Louis School or eligible to begin preparation. YOUTH DIRECTOR'S COMMENTS

{The following is a portion of a speech given by Madeline Hlibok (senior, Suffolk University in Boston) at this past August's College Send-Off Mass. She was addressing our awesome parish community}

...Thank you, St. Louis. Thank you for helping me to find myself. I was fortunate enough to have found you and everything that you offered me at such a pivotal point in my life (high school). Being surrounded by so many supportive and positive people for those whirlwind 4 years helped to keep me grounded and remember what was most important to me... Thank you for giving me responsibility, the responsibility to teach by example... Thank you for helping me to raise the bar in my faith... Thank you for teaching me that there is no better feeling than the feeling of giving back... Thank you for teaching me to be thankful... Thank you for letting me know that you and God are always with me... Thank you for helping me become who I am today. I am proud to be a part of St. Louis.
