What is Lectio Divina?

While reading sacred scripture, read the words with a love and sense of discovery until something seems to strike home. Sit with the passage as one would with a good friend- not just thinking or analyzing, but instead remaining in a quiet, listening spirit, so the word can nurture and challenge you.

Call to Prayer

"Let us take a moment in the midst of all our activity to prepare ourselves for prayer."

Excerpts from SNOW FALLING ON SNOW

The Word of God

Choose one of next Sunday's readings. One person reads the scripture aloud as others are attentive to a word, phrase, or theme that is meaningful to them. Allow for a minute of silent reflection. Have another person read the same scripture a second time.

Faith Sharing

Begin with an open ended question such as "What strikes you from this reading?" and/or you can use the "Reflection Question" found on our website or bulletin. Allow time for reflection & sharing.

Closing Prayer

At the end of the faith sharing, invite participants to pray aloud for any particular petitions or praises they may have. Feel free to close with: The Lord's Prayer or Spontaneous prayers or a faith-based song.

Reflection Question for Next Sunday, June 5, 2011

This final passage in Matthew's Gospel is called "the Great Commission." The disciples obey the women who had seen the Risen Lord and go to Galilee where he awaits them. There they worship and "doubt" him at the same time. Another translation is they "hesitated." Jesus isn't put off by that, but he approaches them. He entrusts to eleven ordinary men the responsibility to transform the entire world through the power of Baptism. The disciples are sent to make others into disciples just as they have been commissioned. You received this Great Commission at your baptism. Don't hesitate! Don't be afraid!

EDUCATION

"Bravo" to our Drama Club students who performed in "Willy Wonka Junior" last weekend to a sell-out crowd! The students put in many hours of preparation, rehearsing their lines, songs and choreography and we congratulate them on a job well done. Our thanks and congratulations to our Drama Club moderators, Mrs. Kathy Dockeray and Mrs. Janis Rose, whose talented leadership was evident in this whimsical production. Thank you to our Art Club students and art teacher, Mrs. Michelle Ruppert for making Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory come to life, complete with the life-sized lollipops and the magical golden ticket!

Kudos to our "Girls on the Run" participants who completed their first 5K race last weekend in Columbia. The girls have been training twice a week for the last several months under the encouragement and guidance of Mrs. Kathy Bernetti and Mrs. Joanna Campbell. It was great to see the sense of accomplishment evident on the face of every girl who crossed the finish line – and on the faces of the Moms who were brave enough to join them! Congratulations, girls!

God Bless our Troops! On this Memorial Day, please join us in remembering our fallen heroes, and keep our troops and their families in your prayers that they will be kept out of harm's way and will return to us safe and sound!

YOUTH MINISTRY

Brian McGivern, one of the many awesome MS CYM dance chaperones that we have, gave the following to me before the May dance. Although I am not usually in my right mind to focus on anything but the 350 at the dance, this reflection is perfect for those we love who are graduating...It is called Leave Good Footprints, and has been attributed to Nancye Sims.

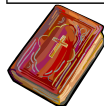

Life is a precious journey we all take. Each decision we make leaves an indelible footprint, for good or bad, success or failure, happiness or sorrow. So walk carefully and with much thought, for your footprints will follow you wherever you go. Make good footprints. Walk in love. Reach out in kindness. Speak peace. Harm no one. Be a light for goodness. Live in truth. Spread hope. Embrace others. Build bridges. Be a friend to all. Show compassion. Champion respect. Give your best. Do what is right. Make a difference. (Everyone can!) Live your life in such a thoughtful and positive way that when you or others look back on the landscape of your life, you will feel proud of the footprints you have left behind. Good footprints will not only allow you to live well, happy, and at peace. They will make this world - which sometimes seems crazy - a better place because it was graced by your presence, blessed by your spirit, and gifted by your bright legacy. Wherever you go in this life...leave good footprints behind you.

8th graders, seniors in high school and college: Your family at St. Louis is praying for you! May God walk with you and guide you in leaving good footprints wherever life may take you!

Joachim, Franciscan Friar, will answer these and other questions at a presentation in the Pastoral Center Social Hall on Tuesday, June 7, from 7:00-8:30pm.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP SEW BAPTISMAL BIBS? St. Louis has a team of wonderful volunteers who share their time and talent sewing Baptismal Bibs for the babies and children who are baptized. The bibs represent the white garment put on when they become a new creation in Christ. It is an outward sign of our Christian dignity. If you would like to help sew bibs call Hilda Mathieu at 301-854-3028. Directions and materials are provided.

This is a wonderful opportunity for used clothing in good condition to be distributed to the poor. It would be regrettable should there be the need to remove the bin from the St. Louis Campus.
